

Reading

- Text: There's a Boy in the Girl's Bathroom by Louis Sachar
- using VIPERS questions to infer meaning, explain and retrieve information
- Non-fiction texts

Writing

Text: The Lost Happy Endings

- Haiku
- Writing to entertain - Character description
- Writing to inform - article
- Writing to discuss - Balanced argument - Is the villain good or evil?

Maths

- practise arithmetic daily and take weekly tests
- develop place value knowledge - comparing numbers up to 1,000,000
- investigate negative numbers

Science

- explore properties and changing materials.
- carry out a range of investigations into the changes when they are heated, cooled and mixed.

Computing

- develop understanding of digital devices and compare digital and non-digital devices.
- E-safety

History

- Learn about the famous fishing industry of Hull, the tragic events of the Triple Trawler Tragedy and the admirable actions of Lillian Bilocca.

D&T

- Linking our learning to our local history by designing and making patties.

Music

- composing musical motifs and structure them into a piece inspired by 'The Night Ferry' by Anna Clyne

Jigsaw

- studying the unit 'Being Me in My World', examining the year ahead, responsibilities, rewards and consequences.

World Religion

- learning about how people express their faiths and beliefs in their everyday actions, and what we can learn from this.

PE

- Our P.E day is a Monday and we will have P.E with the Physical Foundations coach.

French

- the date
- phonetics